

Name: _____ Date: _____

Paired Texts Quiz

Directions: Fill in the bubble next to the best answers for questions 1-6.

- 1. Cloning is the process of _____.
 - (A) choosing a new pet
 - (B) making a copy of an animal
 - (C) saying goodbye to a beloved pet
 - (D) milking a cow
- 2. What is the first step in the cloning process?
 - (A) combining a cell with an egg
 - (B) taking one cell from a piece of skin
 - (C) placing an embryo in a female animal
 - (D) cutting a piece of skin from an animal
- 3. Not many clones have been made. The author says this is because cloning is _____.
 - (A) illegal
 - (B) expensive
 - (C) only for pet owners
 - (D) not well understood
- 4. A cow that's more productive than other cows _____.
 - (A) has no calves
 - (B) eats more grass
 - (C) costs less to feed
 - (D) makes more milk
- 5. Why did Dolly's birth make headlines in newspapers around the world?
 - (A) She was a clone.
 - (B) She was a sheep.
 - (C) She was born in 1996.
 - (D) She was born in Scotland.
- 6. Both articles tell you that _____.
 - (A) cloning is a complicated process that could fail
 - (B) some people think cloning is cruel to animals
 - (C) the idea of cloning humans bothers people
 - (D) scientists have been able to clone animals for about 20 years

Constructed Response

Directions: On a separate piece of paper, write your answer to each question in a well-organized response.

- 7. Why might a clone behave differently than the original animal?
- 8. The author tells you that farmers want to clone cows that produce the most milk. What other animals might farmers want to clone, and why?