

Name: _____ Date: _____

"Rise of the Robots" Quiz

Directions: Fill in the bubble next to the best answers for questions 1-6.

- 1. The article is titled "Rise of the Robots" because _____.
  - robots are getting taller
  - robots cost more than they used to
  - robots are now easy to build
  - robots are doing more jobs
- 2. Where in the article can you find details about the jobs some robots are doing now?
  - the section "Factory Workers"
  - the section "Big Questions"
  - the vocabulary box
  - the photo caption on page 5
- 3. Flippy, Unimate, and SAM100 are robots that _____.
  - look like humans
  - think for themselves
  - can talk back to people
  - do the same task over and over
- 4. According to the article, where can you see robots helping guests check into hotels?
  - Chile
  - Denmark
  - Japan
  - Cuba
- 5. Based on the article, which is an example of a robot using artificial intelligence?
  - a robot flipping burgers
  - a robot pulling up weeds
  - a robot laying bricks
  - a robot counting items on a shelf
- 6. Based on the article, what might happen in the future?
  - You might never see a robot.
  - You might mistake a robot for a human.
  - You might use lasers to see like a robot.
  - You might take a job away from a robot.

Constructed Response

Directions: On a separate piece of paper, write your answer to each question below. Use complete sentences. Make sure you support your answers with information and details from the article.

- 7. Why are engineers making robots look more like humans?
- 8. Why are some people worried about the rise of robots?