

Name: _____ Date: _____

"Malala the Powerful" Quiz

Directions: Fill in the bubble next to the best answers for questions 1-6.

1. The story is called "Malala the Powerful" because Malala Yousafzai _____.

- Ⓐ survived an attack
- Ⓑ brought attention to a major problem
- Ⓒ is now a government leader
- Ⓓ runs a major company

2. Under Taliban control, Malala and her neighbors were not allowed to _____.

- Ⓐ have pets
- Ⓑ listen to music
- Ⓒ eat fruit
- Ⓓ go to doctors

3. Why did Malala and her classmates stop wearing their school uniforms?

- Ⓐ They disliked the style and color of the uniforms.
- Ⓑ They were protesting the school's strict dress code.
- Ⓒ The uniforms were itchy.
- Ⓓ They had to hide the fact that they were going to school.

4. Where in the article can you read about Malala's blog?

- Ⓐ the introduction (first six paragraphs)
- Ⓑ the photo caption "Fighting to Survive"
- Ⓒ the section "A Powerful Weapon"
- Ⓓ the section "What Girls Can Do"

5. Which statement is true based on the article?

- Ⓐ Today, Malala is about 23 years old.
- Ⓑ Malala has seven siblings.
- Ⓒ Malala dislikes doing math.
- Ⓓ Malala grew up in a crowded city.

6. Which sentence below best summarizes the article?

- Ⓐ Millions of girls around the world don't go to school.
- Ⓑ Under Taliban control, people weren't allowed to watch TV.
- Ⓒ Malala Yousafzai grew up in Pakistan.
- Ⓓ Malala Yousafzai risked her life to help girls get an education.

Constructed Response

Directions: On a separate piece of paper, write your answer to each question below. Use complete sentences. Support your answer with information from the article.

7. Choose a word to describe Malala. Give an example from the story to explain your choice.

8. What important lesson can readers learn from Malala's story?